LOT 4194 - HARD TO FIND Black African Lechwe Taxidermy

Description

This is a hard to find taxidermy African Black Lechwe. There are several subspecies of Lechwe, but the Black Lechwe is the most beautiful. This particular specimen is stunning. The color of this Black Lechwe is spectacular. This is an expensive and dangerous hunt. The cost is typically in the twelve thousand dollar range and the hunt takes place in swamp regions that are teeming with danger. If you want a taxidermy mount that no one else has in their trophy room, this is the mount for you. This would look great next to a taxidermy lion, zebra leopard, cape buffalo, rhino, giraffe, or hippopotamus. We can help you find a 3rd party transporter to get this to you. Take your trophy room to the next level with this guy. H: 62 in L: 48 in W: 25 in Ref #: 5105
